Our Little Dutch Cousin

Dave Stewart has survived the inferno of Kansas City and come out the other side. To the rest of the world his fate is uncertain, and by now even Agent Keyes knows better than to assume he's dead. As Keyes and his rogue DHS agents continue their search for him, Dave knows that Plan A, as usual, won't work. His only chance is to keep moving until he can find a safe way to make contact with Nate Reid and figure out his next move. As Dave's odyssey across a zombie infested America continues, he encounters the best and the worst in his fellow survivors. He will find new allies, learn more about the true nature of the Asura virus, and his role in even bigger designs than he ever imagined. But, in a land filled with enemies both living and dead, is all the skill, wit and courage in the world enough to help him survive? Or will this be Dave Stewart's last journey?

A Reader Views Award winner and Eric Hoffer Award finalist The Dark Forest is moving and a horde of bloodthirsty monsters is on the hunt. For the peaceful denizens of Erla, time is running out. Two thousand years have passed since the three clans fled the world of humans through Eon's Door to find sanctuary in a realm called Erla, and now a prophecy left to them by the ancient race that created the tree portal is coming true. A trusted sage has stolen the portal's key and is using the awesome power that separated the worlds to tear apart the very soul of Nature. The key must be taken back and Eon's Door closed--before it's too late. Hope lies with a "child of doubt" from the world the clans left behind and the courageous young Erlan who's been sent to find him.
Together they must retrieve the key and close Eon's Door. It won't be easy. Abominations of beasts and trees stand between them and their goal. Even worse, the sage knows the prophecy and is expecting them.

It seems easy to disregard those inner wounds inside in hopes that they will go away. But wounds that aren't dealt with become more infected and they manifest in many ways and many areas of our lives without us knowing it. It seems easier to ignore them than to work on them. At first the work can feel intense but then with each layer that is healed relief comes. Soon it becomes easier to embrace the idea of dealing with the wounds and unloading the weights that come with them. If you are longing to unload the weights of abuse and pain then this workbook is a great start for you. Take courage and begin your work toward freedom.

In GOD IS A LAWYER TOO, Najih Edwards, the main character, finds himself in the sweatshop of a temp agency, where he - along with hundreds of other lawyers - reviews millions of pages of documents. He struggles to leave and reclaim his life as a successful lawyer, which seems like an impossible dream until he meets a partner at a prestigious law firm named Dale. Dale reveals the "Ten Laws of Unlimited Success," but the question is - who is Dale? Why is he shrouded in mystery? Where did he come from? Does he have the ability to hire Najih at his firm? What is Dale's secret, and how will it impact Najih's fate? If you liked THE GREATEST SALESMAN IN THE WORLD, THE PROPHET, or THE ALCHEMIST, then you will definitely love GOD IS A LAWYER TOO. The TEN LAWS OF UNLIMITED SUCCESS WORKBOOK shares all of the laws that Najih learned from Dale, along with exercises and meditations for achieving success. Author Reverend Cecilia Loving is the spiritual leader of SPIRITMUV(r) (www.spiritmuv.com), a trans-denominational church in New York City. A 1985 graduate of New York University School of Law, Rev. Loving served as Associate Appellate Counsel at the Legal Aid Society, as an Associate at Kramer Levin Nessen Kamin & Frankel, and as a Senior Associate - and then as Counsel for 20 years at Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP. While practicing law fulltime, she received her Master of Divinity from New York Theological Seminary, obtaining the President's Award for academic excellence, as well as the Rising Star Award for her innovative work in ministry. Patrick A. Bradford, Esq., Secretary of the Board of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., calls Rev. Loving "a force of nature - evidencing God's unending grace in these difficult times." Yolanda Webb, Editor-In-Chief, E'LOU Couture Magazine says Rev. Loving's "work gives us the unlimited ability to improve the quality of what we have to offer in this life." Attorney Vaughn Browne says she is "what every mentee desires in a mentor and thankfully she had the foresight to pen this incredible blueprint to share her uncommon gift with the world for generations to come." Attorney and Life Coach Femi Austin says Loving's work "reminds us of the integrative nature of our existence in which a deeper connection to spirit enhances every aspect of our life, including our careers and relationships." Rev. Dr. Cynthia Diaz, New York Theological Seminary, Director Student Affairs and Women's Center, says "Cecilia Loving is an awesome woman called by God to use her gifts as a lawyer, pastor, preacher, and teacher, to minister to our hearts and souls." Pamela D. Jones, Artist, Entrepreneur and Registered Nurse, says "Cecilia Loving's work has inspired me to spread my wings and soar " Rev. Loving's first book, PRAYERS FOR THOSE STANDING ON THE EDGE OF GREATNESS (www.amazon.com), sets forth the spiritual tools necessary to move from the ordinary into the extraordinary and has already changed the lives of many. Her second book, GOD IS A BROWN GIRL TOO, is one of the first books in which God speaks as a black woman to black women. It is regarded as one of the best books to help women of all colors realize the power of the divine within (www.godisabrowngirltoo.webs.com)
