Go beyond lame blogging books with this step-by-step into nine proven systems to make money blogging I spent years wanting to start a blog. I hated my job and knew I didn't want to spend a third of my day miserable but looking through blogging books, all I found were generic strategies and false promises. They all promised huge income but none really told me how much bloggers make or how to make money online. I said screw it and started my blogs anyway in 2014. I quit my job and spent 60+ hours a week building my sites and learning how to make money blogging. You know what, it paid off. I doubled my monthly income last year and now make more than 85% of bloggers. That's in just two years of blogging and I make money from seven different income sources every month. Flip-flops and a T-shirt are my uniform and I'm loving it! You Don't Have 60+ Hours a Week to Learn How to Make Money Online? I didn't start making money blogging overnight. I treated it like a business, I put everything into it and sacrificed life for months to learn how to start a blog and be successful. My pain is your gain. I put everything I learned on my own into this book from the easiest ways to make money to the methods that make thousands a month. Do you want to start a blog business, working wherever you want and making a lot of money? Perfect, you're in the right place: if you want to set everything up properly in your blog, keep reading IMPORTANT: this book was not written to promote a live event where I will give you more information. I poured all my knowledge into this book, saving nothing. My name is Manuel Rise, and I am a professional blogger since 2014. "Professional blogger" means I can live my life blogging: I have a blog (more than one, in truth) through which I sell a service. Several years have passed since I started writing articles, and the world of blogs has changed a lot. Honestly, it changes every year. So, to keep up with the times, every year, I attend SEO courses by Google, copywriting, and basically, every kind of course related to the world of blogs. Unfortunately, there is no great course on the internet that explains how to build a blog and earn money by selling a product or service. That's why - alongside my business - I decided to write this book. Everything you will find in this book is the result of my experience, and that's what allowed me to leave my job and be able to live only with my blogs. It's not a simple journey: making money with a blog is not a quick process and presents many pitfalls. Making sure that our blog reaches the first pages of Google results is a matter that takes much time and much work. And even if it is so fashionable "earns with your passions", it's unfortunately not a real matter. You cannot think to earn money only by writing; you always need to sell something link a product, like a service, like an affiliation etc. In this book, I will try to be as clear as possible and show you how to set everything up properly in your blog and start to make a lot of money. WHAT YOU WILL FIND IN THIS BOOK? ● The best ways to make money through your blog, which are not «Write your passions and get ton of money!». ● Evergreen blog ideas. ● A serious affiliate marketing opportunity. ● How to self-financing. ● How to start a blog step-by-step. ● The importance of the logo, colors, and design of your blog: which parts are important and what you have to write in each of them. ● How to define the right target of your readers and understand how to write to attract them to your posts. ● How to always have content fresh to write (one of these techniques is crazy, and no one has ever told you!). ● Advance copywriting skills to keep the reader glued to your posts. ● How to increase your blogs' reputation. ● How to become an authority in your market. ● How to manage your social media profiles. ● Online marketing principles (this course alone costs more than $ 1.000). ● Advanced SEO techniques to write posts Google love. ● How to manage Facebook Ads and Google Ads to destroy your competitors forever. ● and much more! Don't worry: it's a long process, but nothing hard. You can learn everything, even if you never write a single blog post in your life! Scroll to the top of the page and select the BUY NOW button!

Maiwa's Revenge

Jerry D Young was born at home, in Senath, Missouri July 3, 1953. At age 5 the family rented a small farm house on an active farm 40 miles southwest of St. Louis. While the family weren't farmers, they lived something of a homestead type life, raising a milk cow, sometimes two, and calves, a pig or two, chickens, and the occasional goat. Along with the stock, a large garden helped to feed Jerry's three brothers and two sisters for several years. Fishing and hunting contributed to the pantry, as did foraging the wild edibles on the property. At the age of 14, the family, minus a brother and two sisters that were now adults and on their own, moved back to Senath. Having been encouraged from an early age to read, Jerry was a regular patron of the Senath Branch Library. A love of a good story was born within him, and shortly before graduating high school, for a lack of stories that he liked at the library, he began to write short vignettes, and started taking notes for stories that he wanted to tell. Well, a full life interceded, and the writing didn't resume for several years. But while working a job with a much free time, and the then newfangled home computer, Jerry began to write in earnest. With the occasional gap in the process, Jerry continued to research and write, never believing he could ever be published. But when he turned 50, he wanted a change in his life, left the job he was doing and began focusing on his writing. When he became ill, the writing stopped, but not the inspiration. When he started writing again, in 2004, after getting the medical problems under control, he began to read some on-line stories dealing with emergency preparedness, one of his other loves. The die was cast. Now with over a hundred of the vignettes and short stories about how to survive disasters written, along with his other novels, Jerry decided to go for broke, adding one of his previous works every few days to his list of stories now available, Jerry continues to write, both the Prep/PAW stories, as well as action adventure with a little romance type stories that first got him started.

Choose Yourself!

#1 New York Times Bestseller Over 1 million copies sold In this generation-defining self-help guide, a superstar blogger cuts through the crap to show us how to stop trying to be "positive" all the time so that we can truly become better, happier people. For decades, we've been told that positive thinking is the key to a happy, rich life. "Fk positivity," Mark Manson says. "Let's be honest, shit is fked and we have to live with it." In his wildly popular Internet blog, Manson doesn't sugarcoat or equivocate. He tells it like it is—a dose of raw, refreshing, honest truth that is sorely lacking today. The Subtle Art of Not Giving a Fk is his antidote to the coddling, let's-all-feel-good mindset that has infected American society and spoiled a generation, rewarding them with gold medals just for showing up. Manson makes the argument, backed both by academic research and well-timed poop jokes, that improving our lives hinges not on our ability to turn lemons into lemonade, but on learning to stomach lemons better. Human beings are flawed and limited—"not everybody can be extraordinary, there are winners and losers in society, and some of it is not fair or your fault." Manson advises us to get to know our limitations and accept them. Once we embrace our fears, faults, and uncertainties, once we stop running and avoiding and start confronting painful truths, we can begin to find the courage, perseverance, honesty, responsibility, curiosity, and forgiveness we seek. There are only so many things we can give a fk about so we need to figure out which ones really matter, Manson makes clear. While money is nice, caring about what you do with your life is better, because true wealth is about experience. A much-needed grab-you-by-the-shoulders-and-look-you-in-the-eye moment of real-talk, filled with entertaining stories and profane, ruthless humor, The Subtle Art of Not Giving a Fk is a refreshing slap for a generation to help them lead contented, grounded lives.

HOW TO BLOG FOR PROFIT

There are tens of thousands of blogs created every day online. Most of these blogs are merely hobbies or personal diaries of the people who create them. For some blogging is merely a creative outlet to express their inner thoughts or to simply broadcast their opinions to their audience. For others, blogging is a vehicle for building a business and continuing to do what they love while having control over their destiny. This is the reason I developed an interest in blogging, to create content people love and to build on something that I have full control over while being able to work anywhere in the world. Blogging is not something that just about anyone can do. Sure, we can all create a webpage, throw up and blog and start posting to our heart's content, but that is no guarantee it will be successful, whether you count success as having a large following or making an income to support yourself with. Blogging takes incredible persistence and determination, without these your blog will be neglected and fall back in line with the majority that can never make any money. Treat your blog as a successful business and have a clear vision of the goals you have in mind to take it to the top. Here are some of the chapters covered in this guide: Getting started Position your blog as a voice of authority Outsource to build a blogging team Creating a lead magnet The dashboard Customizing your website's appearance Blog monetization - digital products (ebooks) Monetizing through sponsored posts Website flipping Listicle blogging How to build an email list Guest blogging Types of content that can sky-rocket your blog traffic Best blogging resources Common mistakes AND MORE!!! So, here they are: Philip's first one hundred blog posts. It seemed useful to gather them here in one place. Some work better than others: some are inspired gems, some are about as inspiring as slime mould. Well, that just about sums us up, doesn't it: we are each of us something between a beautifully cut, multi-faceted diamond, and a blob of slime mould (no offence intended towards the intelligent slime mould community out there). But why publish them in book form, when you can go and wade through Philip's blog site and read them for free? Well, this brings them together into a nice, neat, easily handled package for you. Furthermore, if you are a relative newcomer to the blog, you may have overlooked some of the earlier posts. It's also possible, though difficult to credit, that you may not have come across Philip's blog at all! If that is the case, then fear not: here is what you have always been looking for. And, finally, think how useful a paperback copy would be for propping up that uneven table leg! These blogs are more or less unchanged from the originals, as they have appeared on my blog site during the past year, except for the correction of a few typographical errors, and a little editing to make them more suitable for this format.. I think this is as it should be. They are not intended to present any unified theme, or any integrated whole. These are brief reflections, spontaneous expressions of what was on Philip's mind at the time. The opinions of the author (then) do not necessarily represent the opinions of the author (now).

A compass is a very helpful tool-as long as its wielder knows the direction he wants to go. This wasn't often the case in the sixties in America, when many felt directionless, with an unpopular war that had the country's moral compass spinning. "Hope Points North" is a coming-of-age experience that takes place on Long Island during this turbulent period. Of the three boys, Chris McKellar is the conventional one of the group-the glue that binds the troubled Teddy and smart, introverted Charlie together. The story is Chris's adult recollection of the time when he, Teddy, and Charlie decide to travel on their own to Grumman Aerospace Company, the builders of the Lunar Excursion Model-the craft that will eventually deliver man to the moon. Just as the boys embark on their journey, the dark-hearted preacher Lovejoy ambushes them. Teddy's grandpa has amassed a secret fortune, but it's no secret to Lovejoy, who is seducing Teddy's mother and will do anything to get the money. But the boys resist the preacher's attack in a way that leaves him dead in the creek or so they think. In shock, they follow their compass, toward the fraternity of hopes, dreams and, unsuspectingly, manhood.
