Super Shorts

They were only kids when they met for the first time. Leo Mancini was the son of a judge. Roman Cipriani the son of a criminal. So different, yet as they shared stolen kisses and secret moments, they fell in love. One day they would run away together, have the future they deserved, because no one loved Leo like Roman did, or Roman like Leo did. But before they could make their dreams come true, their future was viciously stolen and their lives changed forever. Roman has spent the last twelve years repressing the trauma in his past, trying to pretend it didn't exist, until even he believed his own lies. Leo won't let himself forget what happened because he doesn't ever want to be that person again. He won't become the man his father wanted him to be or the guy who gets hurt when he lets someone in. But in that split second when their eyes meet again, everything changes. Despite Leo's anger and Roman's denial, the connection they shared as teens is still there, too powerful to deny. Now, when their moments don't have to be stolen, they cling to what they've always craved--each other. Roman and Leo aren't kids anymore, though--they can't lock themselves away from the world and pretend nothing exists but each other. A trauma like Roman suffered doesn't just go away, but now that Roman accepts his truth, can the two of them escape their demons before they destroy Roman and Leo a second time? Possible triggers: violence and homophobia

Her Last Tomorrow

In "Eleutherios", Adi Da speaks the ultimate Truth that liberates the being, that frees the heart. This Truth cannot be found by seeking. It is a revelation and a gift that transcends not only the worldly aims that Westerners regard as freedom, but also the inward states of liberation that are the goal of the traditional oriental search. The Truth is the Truth about Reality. What troubles human beings most, Adi Da has found, is their lack of knowledge of what Reality is truly about, what it ultimately is. His revelation in Eleutherios, and in all His wisdom-teaching, is that Reality is Divine absolute Consciousness and absolute Light, inherently full of bliss, joy, and love. There is no God ever conceived by the human mind that truly represents this ultimate Reality and Truth. Rather, all the myths of humankind tend to be diversions from it, and not ultimately liberating. But how does this Divine Reality, or Real God, become the living, conscious form of ones existence, rather than merely an idea in mind? What is the nature and process of true Liberation? In "Eleutherios", Adi Da unveils this great koan
